COLLEGE PRESIDENT RECEIVES HONOR

Sister Lucille McKillop, President of The Newport College - Salve Regina, was honored by the Military and Hospitaller Order of St. Lazarus of Jerusalem by being made a Companion of Merit in the rank of officer of the Order of St. Lazarus of Jerusalem.

Dr. Howard S. Browne, Marshal of the Grand Prior of America, presented the decoration to Sister Lucille on Tuesday, February 12, 1980. The Reverend Edward Kelly, College Chaplain, read the investiture prayer and blessed the decoration which Dr. Browne presented to Sister Lucille. The honor was bestowed on Sister Lucille for her outstanding assistance to the Commandery of the Atlantic on the occasion of its seminar on Biomedical Ethics in regard to Ageing held at the College in June of 1978.

The Order is international, and now ecumenical. The administrative headquarters are on Malta; the Grand Master, or head of the Order, is a Spanish Bourbon, Don Francisco Enrique de Borbon y Borbon, uncle of the King of Spain. The Grand Prior, or head of the Order in America, is Dr. Hans von Leden of Los Angeles, noted otolaryngologist.

The Order still exists to carry out its historic mission to support the care of lepers, but has added to its list of charitable activities the care of the aged, relief in time of war and natural disasters, relief of Christians in Iron Curtain countries, and promotion of Christian unity.

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF IN PROGRESS

Reserve your time now! The Newport College - Salve Regina Players will present their fully-staged, fully-orchestrated production of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF on the evenings of April 17, 18, and 19 in Rogers High School Auditorium, Newport. The production and souvenir program will be dedicated to the memory of Dr. Charles Cooke, late chairman of the Department of Criminal Justice.

Included in the company of sixty are Joseph Caufield as Tevye; Deborah Herz as Golde; Lucia DiSpigno, Donna Mesite, Lucy Marbach, Missy Coulombe and Christine Pateakos as their daughters; Chris Arnold as Motel; Maureen Lareau as Yente; Joy Papandrea as Grandma Tzietel; and Chuck Ubaldi as Mordcha.

The production is under the direction of Joan David. Thomas Day is Musical Director. Stephen Martorella will conduct the ten-piece orchestra. Brother Eugene Lappin is production coordinator. We urge all members of the College Community to support this major theatrical and musical event and welcome all interested to join us now in whatever capacity your heart or talent dictates. For further information contact Joan David, extension 231; Tom Day, extension 236; or Brother Gene, extension 262.

EDUCATION VIA RADIO

Sister Lucille McKillop and Sister Sheila Megley will conclude the present series on Education in the 80's being aired on Salve's Education via Radio on WADK. They will discuss where higher education has been in the 70's and where it is going in the 80's. The program will be aired on WADK on Monday, February 25, at 9:05 a.m.

FACULTY NEWS

To Present Research

Sister Josepha Haskins will present a paper entitled, "Alarm Responses by Nassarius obsoleta" to participants in the workshop on "Chemical Communication Among Animals" being conducted at Hampshire College on February 18 and 19. Sister Josepha's presentation concerns recent studies on the chemical warning systems in the mud snails and her own experiments with the mud snail under alarm conditions. Sister has conducted her research in connection with Dr. Gerald Lanier of State University of New York who is coordinator of the workshop. Mr. Talbot Murray, Director of National Fisheries in Narragansett; Dr. Sastry, Professor of Zoology at the University of Rhode Island and Mr. Leo Bottari of the College have aided Sister in her research.

Judge Science Fairs

Sister Mary Brenda Sullivan recently judged the Biology exhibits at the Annual High School Science Fair at St. Mary Academy, Bayview in Rhode Island. Sister Margaret Murphy is Chairperson of the Science Department.

Dr. Mary Louise Ide judged the seventh and eighth grade projects at Jesus Saviour school in Newport. The Science department is headed by Ms. Rosemary Silveira.

Know Your Newport

Sister Ann Nelson will visit Miley Alumni Lounge on Tuesday, February 26, at 8:00 p.m. with her illustrated lecture, "Know Your Newport." Anyone from the College Community is welcome to attend.

The College Activities Office is actively seeking faculty members to visit residence halls with informal workshops, discussions, or presentations. Don't be shy! This program promises to be enjoyable for all involved.

DISTRIBUTION OF ASHES

Ash Wednesday Liturgy with the distribution of ashes will be in the Great Hall at Noon on February 20. Ashes will also be distributed at the 7 a.m. Liturgy.

GREGORIAN CHANT

A small scola cantorum will help the congregation sing some plain chant at the 5 p.m. Mass in Ochre Court, Saturday, February 23. If you would like to join please come to Ochre Court about 4:30 p.m. for a brief rehearsal. All are welcome. (The scola will not rehearse with the congregation.) For further information, call Dr. Thomas Day at extension 236.

TO HAVE COMMERCIAL AIRED

Johanne Raymond, a senior English major, recently began an internship at radio station WOTB. Johanne has recorded a commercial which will be aired on Valentine's Day. The internship is sponsored by the Placement Office and the Department of English. We were also happy to see Johanne's by-line on the recent Newport Daily News article on women and the draft.
