FIDDLER ON THE ROOF

Have you made your reservations for Fiddler on the Roof? The performances will take place April 17, 18, and 19 at Rogers High School Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Plan to spend an evening sharing the trials of Tevye and his family as they adjust tradition to the modern world, and enjoying the musical refrains of such favorites as "If I Were a Rich Man" and "Sunrise, Sunset."

Bring your friends for an unforgettable evening of lively entertainment. Call extension 220 to make your reservations. There are still good seats left for each performance.

WELCOME, MR. KIERNAN

The Newport College Community extends a warm welcome to Mr. Christopher Kiernan, Assistant to the President for the Development of Enrollment. Mr. Kiernan's office is located on the third floor of Ochre Court, and he can be reached at extensions 285 and 286. We again welcome Mr. Kiernan to Newport.

TO ALL STUDENTS GRADUATING IN MAY 1980

A list has been posted outside the Faculty Services Office in O'Hare Academic Center of those people who submitted File For Degree Forms. This is the official list of graduates that was sent to the diploma manufacturer, so please make sure your name appears on it. If it does not, please contact the Registrar's Office immediately.

PRESIDENT TO PRESENT LECTURE

On Tuesday, April 15, Sister Lucille McKillop will present a lecture on Irish Heritage in Miley Alumni Lounge at 7:00 p.m. The entire College Community is invited.

SISTER LUCILLE NAMED TO COMMISSION

Sister Lucille McKillop has been named by Rhode Island House and Senate Leaders to a commission to recommend a new pay level for Rhode Island legislators. Through the recommendation of the Commission, the legislators hope to be able to obtain a voter referendum to approve the constitutional change. Sister Lucille is among fifteen community leaders who have been asked to serve on the commission.

FACULTY NEWS

On April 18-20, Dr. Patricia Cowan from Miami, Florida and Dr. Jack Childs of the Psychology Department will do a Gestalt Body Work Workshop. Dr. Cowan coordinates the Family Medicine Program at the University of Miami with the Body/Mind Center at the South Dade Community Mental Health Center working with persons having psychosomatic difficulties. For further information, contact Dr. Jack Childs, extension 357.

Dr. Jack Childs of the Psychology Department has been selected to be on the program of the May convention of the Eastern Division of the Association for Humanistic Psychology to be held in Philadelphia. His presentation on energy and bodywork in therapy was one of 140 proposals chosen from 260 submitted.

Sister Patricia Combies of the English Department recently received a copy of the book she co-authored on American Literature for high school students. The book, An I.D. for American Literature, is published by the Center for Humanities in Cleveland. The unit contains detailed lessons for teachers and reproducible handouts for students. Sister previously worked on a grammar unit.

BLOOD DRIVE

College Health Services in conjunction with the Rhode Island Blood Center will be conducting a blood drive on Wednesday, April 16, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the student lounge of O'Hare Academic Center. We hope to have a successful drive. Be sure to eat a good breakfast on April 16 if you plan to participate.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY MEETING

The Rhode Island Section of the American Chemical Society will hold its April meeting in the O'Hare Auditorium on Wednesday, April 16 at 8:00 p.m. Dr. Donald Avery of the Department of Engineering of Brown University will speak on "The Remarkable Technology of Traditional Iron Age Smelters in Africa."

Dr. Avery has been at Brown since 1965. In 1962 he received a Sc.D. from M.I.T. in Metallurgy. He has taught on the faculties of the Universities of Rhodesia and Capetown.

The lecture is open to the public and there is no admission charge. For further information contact Dr. Ascanio DiPippo at extension 251.

ALUMNI THANK YOU

The Annual Alumni Giving Fund Phonathon was most successful due to the hard work of all the volunteers. Over $5000 was pledged, and the response cards are being received daily. Thank you to all who participated.

SAFETY NOTE

Personal property is your responsibility. Protect it from theft: all items of value should be identified with your name and/or social security number. Make a record of all valuables marked, and keep the record in a safe place. Never leave your personal property such as pocketbook, briefcase or packages on the seat of your car. Place these items in the trunk of your car.

Walking in the street to or from class is very dangerous. Fifty-nine people were injured while walking along a roadway in the City of Newport during 1979. A majority of those injured were in the age group of 15 to 34. The state law of Rhode Island (31-18-10) states: Where sidewalks are provided it shall be unlawful for any pedestrian to walk along and upon an adjacent roadway. Students are reminded to please use the side walk when going to or returning from classes. LIFE IS PRECIOUS, PRESERVE IT.

PARKING

All students are reminded that "Diagonal Parking" is not authorized on the streets adjacent to the College, (Ochre Point Ave., Shepard Ave., and Leroy Ave.). Vehicles found in violation of "Parallel Parking" will be ticketed by the Newport Police Department. Any vehicle preventing the passage of emergency equipment will be towed.

CONCERT

Student Life Senate presents Aztec-Two-Step with Orrin Star and Gary Mehalick on Sunday, April 20, 1980, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. at Wakehurst Gardens. Inclement weather location will be the O'Hare Auditorium. Tickets will be on sale next week in O'Hare Lobby from Student Life Senate members. Contact Kathy Clark, extension 349 for further information.

OF INTEREST

April 13-19 - National Library Week. Purpose: To promote use and support of all types of libraries; public and private, academic and special, and to make the public aware of the many services available at their local libraries. A special thank you to our librarians and staff for their service to us.
