RECEIVES DR. MOSES LEO GILELSON LEADERSHIP AWARD

Mark Gordon, a Junior Political Science major, received the Dr. Moses Leo Gilelson Leadership Award at the 11th Annual National Student Symposium of the Center for the Study of the Presidency held at the Hyatt Regency in Washington, DC, April 11-13. Mark was chosen from 600 college students from across the country who submitted 3000 word essays on priorities for the Presidency as an institution in the 1980's.

Mark's thesis was entitled "The American Presidency in the 1980's: Applying Four Core Problems." In developing his thesis Mark applied the four problems in nation building (1) creation of a common identity (2) establishment of legitimate authority (3) organization of an effective institution of power (4) production and distribution of services to the American Presidency in the 1980's. He viewed the President as the one to recreate the American identity, to reestablish authority, to reorganize an effective institution of power, and to renew the production and distribution of goods and services.

Mark received a $500 grant and was made an Associate Fellow of the Center which devotes its time to research on the Presidency. He will serve on the Program Board for the symposium next year. His essay will be published in the Center's annual publication. Three professors engaged in research on the Presidency have requested copies of Mark's work to be used in their studies. His essay will appear in a future issue of Newport.

Runners-up were named representing Yale University, U.C.L.A., Vallanova University, Baylor University and Vanderbilt University. The College Community congratulates Mark on this honor and his achievement.

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF UPDATE

Fiddler on the Roof opens tonight at Rogers Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. There are still good tickets available for each performance, and it is still possible to arrange dinner-theater parties for Friday and Saturday nights. Contact Brother Gene, ext. 262, for information. If you viewed the videotape, then you know the production promises to be entertaining. Support our players.

TO ADDRESS COMMUNION BREAKFAST

Sister Lucille McKillop will speak at the East Providence Council Knights of Columbus Communion Breakfast on April 20. Since this is the year of the family, the chairman of the breakfast felt it would be appropriate to have a woman guest speaker who is an educator as well. This is a particularly honorable occasion for Sister Lucille since the Knights have never asked a woman to speak at any of their previous functions.

SPRING FORMAL

The Spring Formal will be held this Saturday evening in Ochre Court featuring "Just Friends." The dinner begins at 7:00 p.m. and dancing will run from approximately 9:30 - 1:00 a.m. If, due to extenuating circumstances, you were unable to obtain a ticket for the dinner-dance you may be admitted to the dance only at a charge of $10 per couple provided:

1. You understand that only couples may attend Formal events (No "stags" please.)
2. You cannot be admitted before 10:00 p.m. due to a ceremony which follows dinner.
3. You understand that "dance-only" guests cannot be guaranteed seating at the tables.

For further clarifications contact College Activities at ext. 332.

SPRING CONCERT

This year's outdoor Spring Concert features the music of Aztec-Two-Step on this Sunday, April 20 from 1:00 - 4:00 p.m. in the Wakehurst Gardens. Those bearing a Salve I.D. card may purchase tickets for $5 per person. Other guests will be welcomed at a charge of $6 per person.

In case of inclement weather, the concert will run at its regularly scheduled time, at the Viking Hotel Convention Center on Bellevue Avenue. Tickets are now on sale in limited quantities in O'Hare Academic Center.

FACULTY NEWS

Sister M. Mauricita Stapleton and Sister M. Giles Peresich attended the ACRL New England Chapter and New England College Librarians Spring Conference held at Connecticut College in New London. The theme of the conference: Beyond the New Horizon: The Future of Academic Library Service enabled the participants to consider such topics as the "Academic Librarian as Educator," the "Academic Library in 1980," and the "Academic Librarian - Technology and Changing Roles." The main speaker for the conference was Dr. Evan I. Farber of Earlham College, renown for his method and concept of Library Instruction and author of Classified List of Periodicals for College Libraries.

Sister Marjorie Walsh will be honored at Homecoming Weekend at St. Xavier Academy in Providence. Sister is former principal of the school and a member of the fifty year class.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS UPDATE

Plans are moving ahead for the Special Olympics Program on Saturday, April 26. Tickets for the raffle will be available on campus next week at various locations; cost is $1.00/ticket which give 5 opportunities to win assortments of prizes.

Among the participants in the parade will be R2D2; Miss Rhode Island 1979, Elaine Ruslow; the Flintstones; Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs and local clowns and unicyclists. Starting time is 9:00 a.m.

Volunteers are still needed for a variety of jobs and responsibilities. For a day of fun and enjoyment and for a good cause contact Special Olympic Committee members or John Rok, ext. 282, today to offer your time and services.

ATTENTION SPECIAL EDUCATION STUDENTS

The Special Education Department will be interviewing Sophomore Special Education students who will be seeking formal acceptance into the Department. Any student who is interested in pursuing a career in Special Education needs to be familiar with page 18 of the Academic Advising Handbook 1978-1979. It is time for you to make sure that Step 2 is completed. For further information, contact Sister Kathryn Murphy, ext. 244.

CHANGE OF DATE

The Art Show will open on Friday, May 2, in O'Hare Lobby. There will be a wine and cheese reception from 11:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on that day. The exhibit will continue on Saturday, May 3 and Monday, May 5.

IN APPRECIATION

What would happen if there was no one to:

- ...find a lost report five minutes before a meeting
- ...type a ten-page examination "yesterday"
- ...stand in endless lines to xerox committee reports
- ...remind us of meetings, appointments, and lunch
- ...answer the phone, take messages and return calls
- ...smile and say "Good morning"

What would happen would be confusion, postponed tests, missed deadlines, forgotten meetings, unanswered phones and unsmiling days and the weekly newsbulletin would look like this:

Thank you, Secretaries

National Secretary Week: April 20-26.
