Salve Regina College will award degrees in Law Enforcement to 125 local policemen this Sunday at 2:00 p.m. We think the ceremony will be of interest to you for the following reasons:

1. Lieutenant Governor J. Joseph Garrahy will receive an Honorary Doctor of Civil Laws degree. This is the first degree ever awarded to the Lieutenant Governor and the first honorary degree granted by the Law Enforcement Program at Salve.
2. The graduating class represents the largest group of police officers to receive a degree in this state.
3. The 125 men in this year's graduating class represent an almost tenfold increase since the program graduated its first 13 men just three years ago.
4. Salve has recently announced a new coeducational policy and the large number of men in the Community Education Program shows that coeducation isn't really that "new" at Salve.
