DEAN'S LIST ANNOUNCED

Congratulations to the 304 students who are included on the Dean's List for the Spring semester. The list recognizes 89 Seniors, 79 Juniors, 68 Sophomores and 68 Freshmen. These students have evidenced high academic achievement. To be listed, students must have no grade below B and full-time students need a grade point average of 3.5 while part-time students need a grade point average of 3.7.

FACULTY NEWS

Sister Mary Giles Peresich, R.S.M., Catalog Librarian, returned last week from Catholic University of America. Sister Mary Giles spent six weeks at the Washington, D.C. campus where she pursued additional advanced study in classification under the personal direction of Dr. Francis J. Witty, C.U.'s distinguished Professor of Cataloging.

Ms. Stephanie Muri, Instructor of Social Work, was recently installed as secretary of the Rhode Island Chapter, National Association of Social Workers.

Sister Consilii Reynolds will tour Europe July 15 - August 6. Part of her time will be spent visiting universities in Ireland to investigate programs of study for her sabbatical next year.

STUDENTS ELECTED STATE OFFICERS

Three Salve students were recently elected to the State Student Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) offices for the 1980-81 academic year. Paula Gremour is President; Debra Capodilupo is Vice President; Diane Lowe is Secretary. Congratulations to all three.
