SALVE ELECTS THREE NEW TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of Salve Regina College, Newport, Rhode Island, elected three new members during its first meeting of the 1973-74 academic year last night. The new board members are: Felix DeWeldon of Newport, R. I., and Washington, D. C.; Sister Mary Therese Antone, R.S.M., of Cumberland, R. I.; and Mr. Willard H. Gage, Jr., of Barrington, R. I.

Mr. DeWeldon is an internationally known sculptor. Among his more famous works are the World War I monument, Belleau Wood, France; the U. S. Marine Corps Memorial of the Iwo Jima Flag Raising, Washington, D. C.; a bronze of Sgt. Alvin York, Nashville, Tennessee; a bronze of President Kennedy and a gold medal of President Johnson on display in the White House, Washington, D. C.

A native of Austria, Mr. DeWeldon became a naturalized U. S. citizen in 1945. He holds an A. B. from Marchetti College, Vienna, Austria, and a M. A., M. S. and Ph. D. from the University of Vienna, Academy of Creative Arts, School of Architecture.

Sister Antone is a staff member of Mercy College in Cumberland, R. I. She is also Provincial Councilor of the Sisters of Mercy and a member of the Board of Trustees of the Bishop Feehan High School Foundation.

Formerly the principal of Bishop Feehan High School, Attleboro, Massachusetts, Sister Antone has served on the accrediting team of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges, the Board of Governors of the Southeastern Massachusetts Conference of High Schools and the Advisory School Board of the Fall River Diocese. Sister Antone is a graduate of Salve Regina College and Villanova University where she received her Master's degree.

Mr. Willard H. Gage, Jr., is an assistant vice president of the Rhode Island Hospital Trust National Bank. He is a graduate of the Williams College School of Banking and the Rutgers University Stonier Graduate School of Banking.

Past president of the Providence Chapter of the American Institute of Bankers, Mr. Gage is a member of the Greater Providence Chamber of Commerce, the Rhode Island Historical Society, Special Gifts Chairman of the United Way, a member of the Board of Directors and Executive Committee of Business Opportunities, Inc., a member of Robert Morris Associates and a trustee of Alpan, Inc.
