Faculty Senate

At the invitation of the Faculty Senate, a champagne reception for new faculty members was held in the Great Dining Room at Ochre Court on Wednesday, September 19, 1973.

Sister Lucille, president, the administration, faculty, and all members of the Salve Regina College Community extended a welcome to the new faculty.

Sister Mary Jean Tobin, R.S.M., head of the English department, read this tribute to the late Richard McGinn:

IN MEMORY OF RICHARD J. MCGINN

He taught as one who sought to be a friend
To serve a need in literature and life.
And captured in the lines of prose and play
The magic of the Masters and the strife
That lay beneath the singing sounds of words,
He let the quiet beauty of his soul
Filter through the rhythm and the rhyme
And lifted up the hearts of all who heard
Beyond the fragile boundaries of time.
Though he is gone, there lingers in this place
The truth, the trust, the wisdom that was he
Caught within the contours of these walls
All that he was, all that he hoped to be.
Within the hum-drum moments of each day
He gave himself to all within his reach
Treading the teacher's arduous way
Gladly did he learn and gladly teach.

Sister Mary Jean Tobin, R.S.M.
