UNITED WAY APPEAL 1980 "THANKS TO YOU IT WORKS FOR ALL OF US"

To Members of the College Community

From Sister Lucille McKillop, President

Within the next few weeks you will once again be given the opportunity to contribute to the United Way of New England. In making this annual appeal to you, I do it with the deepest sense of humility, pride and appreciation as I remember your spectacular response over the last few years.

	1979	1978	1977	1976	1975	1974
Employee Participation	87%	90%	86%	72%	42%	11%
Payroll Deduction	62%	70%	67%	29%	19%	6%
Per Capita Gift	$38	$43	$35	$19	$14	$3

This record encourages me to ask you to reach a 1980 goal of 100% participation to do this through an increase in the number of payroll deductions, and to remember the all too obvious fact that the increased cost of living is an even greater burden on the poor and oppressed than it is upon us. I have asked Mr. James Kaul to succeed Dr. Charles O'Connor as our Chairman for the 1980 United Way Appeal.

I am gratefully conscious of your spirit of compassion and loyalty.

NEW APPOINTMENTS

Norman J. Faria of Bristol has been named to the position of college activities director. As director he will be responsible for the management of events sponsored by administration, faculty, students and staff. Under his direction, students will be offered opportunities to develop their capabilities as coordinators of events and activities. Mr. Faria earned his Bachelor of Science degree in journalism and communications in 1979 at the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut. He was awarded the Charles A. Dana Scholarship for personal and academic achievement. During his education, he served as president of the University's advertising club and was presented the American Advertising Federation Student Competition Award. He is a member of the national Entertainment and Campus Activities Association.

Kathleen M. Horan of Newport has been appointed admissions counselor. A Rhode Island native, Miss Horan is a 1980 magna cum laude graduate of Providence College and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English. She contributed to the college's art and literary journal, The Alembic and tutored in the Western Civilization program. She is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy, Bayview in Riverside and Kathleen attended Salve for two years.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

Father Raymond McNickolas is joining the staff of Campus Ministry. Fr. McNickolas is a Columban priest from Chicago, Ill. presently residing at the Columban house in Bristol. In his duties at the College Father will be celebrating the noon day liturgy and the Saturday evening liturgy. In addition he will also offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation each day after the noon day Mass and will provide marriage preparation services to those seeking the Sacrament of Matrimony.

Sunday, October 12

The College community extends a sincere welcome to Father John Mulvehill, former President of Cardinal Cushing College in Boston and present Director of Religious Education for the Archdiocese of Boston, as our guest celebrant for the Sunday, October 12, 11:15 a.m. liturgy. Father Mulvehill has a S.T.L. from Maynooth, Ireland.

Sunday Faith Series

"What Does It Mean To Be Christian in Today's World?" is the topic to be addressed on Sunday October 19, at 2:30 in Ochre Court. Rev. Robert Knapp will give this first presentation in a series of three, that will address relevant aspects of a life of faith today.

Fr. Knapp has a doctorate in Sacramental Theology from the Angelicum in Rome. He has also taught at the Gregorian in Rome and is presently the Academic Dean at Pope John XXIII Seminary in Weston, MA.

Retreat

There are still some openings available for the upcoming retreat October 17-19 at the Holy Cross Fathers in No. Dartmouth, MA. Transportation can be arranged. For further information call Sr. Kathy Barden, ext. 363.

CAMPUS MINISTRY (continued)

Spirituality of the Religion Teacher will be the topic addressed by Sr. Jose Hobday on Tuesday October 21, 1:00 p.m. at Providence College, Alumni Hall. The lecture, sponsored by the Diocese of Providence and Providence College, is free to the public.

Sr. Jose, a member of the Franciscan order and a native American, is known throughout the U.S. for her reflections on spirituality.

For more information contact Campus Ministry, ext. 363.

NOTICE TO ALL FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATIVE-STAFF

The Newport College - Salve Regina is one of over four hundred major colleges and universities that was represented in last year's edition of the National Register of Outstanding College Graduates. It is very important that our college/university be represented again this year. Students who are selected to appear in the Register are among those first sought after by employers nationwide.

Students nominated by you must be seniors who are outstanding as to their character, scholarship and leadership merit; therefore, their selection should not be based on academic achievement alone. All students must be among those who will be completing their degrees between now and August 1981.

All nominations must be received by the Dean of Student Development by Friday, October 17 and must be accompanied by a written rationale supporting the nominees qualifications for this distinction. Students who are ultimately selected will be notified by personnel from the National Register of Outstanding College Graduates.

EDUCATION AND SPECIAL EDUCATION STUDENTS

All applications for the Observation/Practicum and Student Teaching during this spring semester must be submitted on or before Tuesday, October 14th. Education applications are submitted to Sr. Corinne Walsh; Special Education applications are submitted to Sr. Kathryn Murphy.

The Admission/Retention Committee for Education and Special Education will meet Friday, October 24, 9 a.m. in the Drawing Room of Ochre Court.

STUDENT TEACHERS IN SECONDARY AND ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

A seminar for all current Secondary Ed Student Teachers will be held on THURSDAY, October 16 at 3 p.m. in Room 107 of O'Hare.

A seminar for all current Elementary Ed Student Teachers will be held on THURSDAY, October 23 at 3 p.m. in Room 107 of O'Hare.

BOATHOUSE ENTERTAINMENT

Michael Christopher, singer/guitarist, will perform on Thursday, October 9 from 9 p.m. to midnight at the Boathouse. There will be a $1 cover charge.

NOSE AND THROAT CULTURES

College Health Services shall take nose and throat cultures the week of October 13, 1980 on Junior Nursing Students who are required to have this done before they start their clinical assignment.
