UNITED WAY - LAST DAYS OF THE APPEAL

There is officially only one more week left to the 1980 United Way Campaign.

With 50 employees not yet heard from, Salve has raised a total of $4,143 so far Participation has reached 73%.

Our goal is $6,500 and 90% participation.

Remember, you may return your pledge cards directly to the Financial Aid Office, 2nd floor, Ochre Court.

If you have not already done so, consider giving through the payroll deduction plan. Thanks to you thousands of Rhode Islanders will benefit from the many United Way supported agencies.

"Thanks to you - it works for all of us"

SPORTS SCENE

Men's Basketball

The men's basketball team has gotten off to a great start with two excellently played games. Newport College upset Bristol Community College in overtime by seven. Jay Morris hit for six points; Chris Perrotti added four as Newport College outscored Bristol Community College 13-7 in overtime en route to a 66-59 upset victory Monday night. Pat Beron was Newport College's top scorer with 21 points, Jay Morris had 14 points and Chris Perrotti had 12. The victory was a great team effort!

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Ascanio DiPippo and Dr. George Morris attended a seminar in Boston last week on "Computer assisted Chemistry." The seminar was sponsored by the Perkin-Elmer Corporation.

Dr. Eugene Hillman, C.S.Sp., has an article in the November 15, 1980 issue of America. The title of the article is: "From Tribal Religions to a Catholic Church." Father Hillman's article addresses the following question: "Will the Church in our time be able to move out with Pauline boldness in the direction of an ever-increasing cultural catholicity?" Father Hillman who is on leave of absence from The Newport College - Salve Regina is doing research in Kenya.

"How To Get The Most Out Of The Holidays" will be the topic of this month's presentation by the staff of Counseling Services. Handling the holidays and integrating the many social events into an academic schedule and lifestyle will be the focus of this offering. Calendars of Christmas in Newport programs and copies of the Rhode Island Guide will be available. Presentation will run from 8:30 - 9:30 p.m. with refreshments to follow. Dates: Wednesday, December 3rd, in Carey Mansion and Wednesday, December 10th, in Miley Alumni Lounge. Please come and share some eggnog and hot cider in an informal setting.
