VALORIE SHEEHAN PROMOTED

Sister Therese Antone, Vice President for Institutional Advancement, is pleased to announce that Mrs. Valorie Sheehan has been promoted to the position of Coordinator of Annual Giving. In her new position Mrs. Sheehan will coordinate all annual giving solicitations, Parents Council Activities, Annual Alumni Phonathon and will assist in the planning and details of special events sponsored by the Development Office.

Before coming to the College, in the Fall of 1979, Mrs. Sheehan worked for Packer Braman Insurance Agency of Newport and prior to that was employed by The Great American Travel Company of Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts.

FACULTY NEWS

Dr. Frank Maguire will conduct an in-service educational day at St. Joseph's Hospital in North Providence on Friday, Jan. 23, 1981. The educational day will be devoted to a consideration of the medical, legal, psychosocial and Christian ethical aspects of the use and non-use of extraordinary artificial life support systems.

Dr. James Hersh, Professor of Philosophy, will give a lecture on "The Dream Image" Feb. 7, 1981 at The Art Association, Bellevue Avenue, Newport.

Dr. Jack Childs has been invited to make a return presentation at the May 15-17 Conference of the Eastern Division of the Association for Humanistic Psychology in Philadelphia. Presentations are primarily experiential in nature. Selections for this year were made on the basis of numbers in attendance and evaluation results from last Spring's Convention. Dr. Childs' subject area is concerned with the body's energy field and creative living.
