CAREER DAY IS COMING

Wednesday, February 25, is the day to remember. Over 30 representatives from business, industry, government, criminal investigative agencies, Peace Corps/Vista, Newport School Department, social services agencies and many more will be participating in the second annual Career Day to be held in the O'Hare Lobby.

Freshmen and Sophomores don't miss this opportunity to investigate some careers. Find out what courses and majors are needed. Graduation is only a few years away.

Juniors and Seniors take advantage of the Program by making contact with potential employers.

Remember Your Career is your decision

College Health Services will hold its next blood drive in conjunction with the Rhode Island Blood Center on Monday, February 9, 1981, from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. in the student lounge of O'Hare Academic Center.

There is a desperate need for blood donations.

FACULTY AND STAFF NEWS

Jay Lacouture, Assistant Professor of Art, has been asked by the Rhode Island Art Teachers Association to serve as a juror in the crafts division of the regional high school Scholastic Art Awards on February 2, 1981.

Professor Lacouture has also been chosen, from over 2400 candidates, by the American Crafts Council to participate in their Baltimore Wintermarket Show from February 17-22 at the Baltimore Convention Center.

Jan Gordon, a psychiatric social worker who is a counselor in Salve's Counselors Services has recently been elected to the Board of Directors of Child and Family Services of Newport.

Father Salvatore Pignato, graduate intern in Narragansett Hall, presented a paper at George Washington University in Washington, D.C. last week. The paper was entitled Alcoholism - Group Therapy. It dealt with the treatment of alcoholism discussing four psychological factors which influence treatment: Dominance, Socialization, Self-Acceptance and Responsibility. Father's paper will be published.

MRS. BRABECK'S DISSERTATION IN LIBRARY

A copy of Mrs. Mary Margaret Knutson Brabeck's dissertation "The Relationship Between Critical Thinking Skills and Development of Reflective Judgment Among Adolescent and Adult Women" is available in the Library. Some students might remember their involvement in the study. Those who worked with Mary all rejoice that the task is complete.

SPORTS SCENE

Men's Varsity Basketball

The men's basketball team lost to power house Trinity College, 84-56, on January 23, 1981. Trinity lead at half-time 51-24. With pride and hustle, Salve fought back to knock down the lead to 16 pts. with 6 minutes left to play, then Trinity out-scored Salve 14-2 in the final minutes. Jay Morris led Salve scorers 16 points, Pat Beron had 12 points. The Newport College's next game is at Bristol Community College, February 10.

The Student Nurses' Organization is hosting a lecture on February 12th entitled, "Alcohol and Drug Abuse." Guest speaker is Mr. John Bosse, a psychiatric social worker from the Massachusetts Correctional Institution in Bridgewater, Mass. The event is scheduled to begin at 7:15 p.m. in room 260, O'Hare.

All are welcome to attend!

Need some special support? Are you a student with the added burdens of family responsibilities, full-time employment, a long commute? Join the crowd! Let's get together on Thursday, February 12, from 4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. in O'Hare's Auditorium. Plans include social and practical activities to help get the most out of academia! For more information please see Carmen Mottinger or call Diane Caplin, ext. 367. See you on the 12th!
