PEACE AND JUSTICE SYMPOSIUM

March 26, 1981

2nd Special Bulletin

The Reading/Ranking Committee of the Peace and Justice Symposium has drawn up the following format suggestions and the criteria for the ranking of the Peace and Justice papers.

I Format

1. A separate form for the first title page will be available in the Faculty Office and in the General Office in Miley Hall. This form will be removed and a code number will be put on each paper before they are delivered to the Reading/Ranking Committee by the office of the Academic Dean.
2. Second title page. Title only.
3. All papers must be typewritten, double spaced, stapled.
4. The length of the paper should be five to ten pages, except for poetry. Outline, notes and bibliography are not counted in the five to ten page limit.
5. On page one there should be a clear statement of intention or thesis statement.
6. If sources are used, the notes should indicate at least the principal ones.
7. There should be an outline of the main points.
8. The paper should be the original effort of one student.
9. The paper may be a paper that was submitted for a regular course.
10. Students should keep a xerox copy and submit the original to their instructor.

11. The paper may be an essay, a TV script, play, short story or poem.
12. Papers must be submitted to the Academic Dean's Office by 4:00 p.m. Tuesday, April 21, 1981.

II. Criteria for Ranking Papers

1. The readers will grade the papers in reference to four criteria:
 - a) Creativity - topic approach
 - b) Content - is the material well planned?
Is it presented clearly?
 - c) Composition - good sentence structure, correct usage, etc.
 - d) Skill in arguing the thesis
2. Each paper will be ranked on a one to ten point basis in reference to each of the four criteria for a total of forty possible points.
3. Each paper will be read by each member of the committee (seven members) and ranked. The authors of the four papers with the highest average scores will be selected as the Peace and Justice Scholars.

III. Peace and Justice Symposium

1. On Wednesday May 6, 1981, 7:00-9:00 p.m., the four Peace and Justice Scholars who have been chosen on the basis of their written presentations, will participate in a symposium. There will be an oral presentation by each scholar followed by a panel discussion. The panel will consist of the four Scholars and a student moderator. A panel of judges will be chosen from outside the College Community to select the outstanding Peace and Justice Scholar, taking into consideration the demonstrated poise, competence and conviction of the four Scholars.
2. The outstanding Peace and Justice Scholar will be awarded a $500 Peace and Justice Scholarship.

The members of the Committee are: Dr. John Greeley, Sr. Ann Nelson, Br. Gene Lappin, Ms. Susan Closter-Godoy, Mr. John Rok, Sr. Leona Misto, and Dr. Robert McKenna.
