Music and Dancing at the “Queen of Resorts”:
The Impact of the Germania Musical Society on Newport’s Hotel Period

Cleared for Curation: America’s Cup Avenue and the Creation of Newport’s “Historic” Downtown
Membership in the Newport Historical Society is renewed annually. Those interested in becoming members are cordially invited to contact the Society or visit the website at www.NewportHistory.org.

Newport History is a peer-reviewed history journal, comparable to that of other journals in the broad field of American history and culture, and is published twice a year. The Society warmly welcomes the submission of material to be considered for publication. In particular, the editor seeks well-written scholarly articles on history and culture, accessible to a general audience. Our field of interest, broadly interpreted in subject and time period, ranges from pre-colonial to recent history—of the city of Newport, Rhode Island, and of Newport County, including its several towns—Jamestown, Little Compton, Middletown, and Portsmouth, as well as their associated islands and waters. It touches on the activities, people, trends, and events within these geographical areas and their connections and influences in the wider world.

The ideas, language and sentiments expressed herein are attributable solely to individual authors and are not endorsed by the Newport Historical Society. Likewise, advertisement in Newport History by outside vendors or services does not imply endorsement by the NHS.
