SALVE PRESENTS THE PRIME OF MISS JEAN BRODIE

The Theater Division of Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I., will present The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie at the newly renovated Campus Theater in the college's Creative Arts Center on November 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18. Curtain time for all performances is 8:00 p.m.

The drama by Jay Presson Allen probes with humor and insight, the prime years of a "fiercely independent and unorthodox school teacher" and her lasting influence on her students.

The play is directed by Joan David, director of theater at Salve. She is assisted by Paula O'Malley, production manager; Gordon Sweeney, lighting designer; and Glenn Giuttari, music coordinator.

Denise Foley McCarthy, a Salve alumnus, will have the title role of Jean Brodie. Her husband, Don, a student at Roger Williams College, plays Gordon Lather, her former lover. James Anderson of Newport plays Teddy Lloyd, the art instructor.
