ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF APPOINTMENTS

Steven Painchaud of Concord, N.H., is the new Residence Program Director at Salve Regina - The Newport College. His responsibilities include working with Hall Directors and Resident Assistants in developing programs for the residence halls.

Mr. Painchaud was an Assistant Dean of Student Affairs at St. Joseph's College in Maine and most recently held the position of Executive Director of the New Hampshire Commission on Children and Youth. He holds a B.A. in English from St. Joseph's College and a M.S. in Education from the University of Southern Maine.

The Admissions Office is happy to announce the promotions of both Mary Alice Campbell and Clara Rosa to the positions of Admission Officer.

Mary Alice has served the College for the past 6 1/2 years as a secretary in the Library and Admissions Office. In her new role, she will be responsible for contacting, interviewing, and processing the applications of all special entry students. She will also be supervising the entry of data related to special entry students in our new computer system.

Clara has served the College for 10 years in both the Business Office and Admissions Office. In her new role, she will be working in the contact, interviewing, and application processing phases of the admissions cycle for those applicants who come to the College directly from high school. Clara will also be responsible for the management of all office systems as they relate to the computerization process.

Recently appointed to the new position of Writer/Publicist in the Public Relations Office is Lyn Patterson. A native of LaCrescent, Minnesota, Lyn has worked as a newspaper reporter for several daily newspapers in Minnesota. These include the Waseca's Daily Journal, the Mankato Free Press and the Worthington Daily Journal. She has also served as a feature writer and copy editor.

Prior to moving to Portsmouth from Michigan, Lyn worked as a copy writer for William R. Biggs Associates, an advertising/public relations agency in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Lyn holds a B.A. in English/Journalism from Mankato State University (Mankato, Minn.), and studied audio visual/media on a graduate level at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. She recently completed requirements for a teaching certificate in English/Journalism.

FACULTY NEWS

Sister Prudence Croke, Department of Religious Studies, was elected to membership in The Catholic Theological Society of America at the annual convention held in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 10-13, 1981. Sister Prudence was a participant in the seminar on "Christology." Theme of the convention was "The Local Church."

Two former faculty members are back visiting. Sister Rosalie FitzPatrick is here for a few vacation weeks.

Reverend Eugene Hillman has returned from two years in Africa. He is visiting his sister, Dorothy, and will be lecturing at various Universities throughout the United States for the next few months. We are delighted to welcome them and wish them pleasant and relaxing days in Newport.

REDWOOD LIBRARY EXHIBIT

The Redwood Library has a lovely display of James Russell Pope's Newport buildings. Whiteholme (the former site of what is now Miley Hall) is also displayed. The archives of Salve, has loaned from its collection, beautiful photographs of Whiteholme. All are invited to see the display. For more information contact Sister Mary Smith, ext. 275.

GESTALT MOVEMENT WORKSHOP

Poldi Orlando is returning at the end of July to conduct an intensive five day Gestalt Movement Workshop. The workshop will begin Wednesday, July 29 and end Sunday, August 2, 1981. Most of the participants registered for this workshop have taken other workshops conducted by Poldi. She is returning in response to the request of many persons for more personal work with her.

NATIONAL SUPPORT OF HIGHER EDUCATION DAY

The first National Support of Higher Education Day, an offshoot of CASE's year-long "Mindpower Campaign," is being celebrated today, Thursday, July 16, 1981 in Washington, D.C. at the CASE Annual Assembly.

The purpose of this campaign, which will culminate in a special "Mindpower Week" Oct. 3-11, is to focus attention on the variety of contributions made by the colleges, and to improve public awareness and support of these institutions to ensure their continued growth in the future.

Among the campaign's objectives are increasing financial support for institutions from all traditional sources as well as strengthening alumni support, and creating better public awareness of education's contributions, and encouraging public commitment to education in the voting booths.
