Dear Sir:-

I enclose you a copy of Mr. Sinclair's bid for the extra blue-stone curbing outside of Mr. Goelet's entrance gates, and I think the figure quoted is a fair price for the stone.. If this is satisfactory to you, I will order it at once, as every day's delay makes a great difference in procuring the stone from the quarry. This completes the entire work ordered by Mr. Goelet. In a few days I will send you particulars in relation to relaying of drive under porte cochere .

Yours very truly,

Ernest W. Bowditch
