Salve Regina The Newport College

Newport, Rhode Island 02840

Published for the College Community on a weekly basis by the Office of Public Relations. Deadline Tuesday, NOON.

October 15, 1981

THE UNITED WAY

Solicitors for the College's annual United Way Appeal have been selected, and very shortly each member of the faculty and staff will be asked to contribute to this year's campaign.

Our goal this year is an ambitious $5,602.18. In total, the goal looks almost unobtainable. Realistically however, we can achieve that goal, and even surpass it, but it will take an all-out effort from everyone if we are to succeed.

Solicitors this year include: Miss Helen Arruda, Mr. Paul Cardoza, Mrs. Barbara Carney, Mrs. Lottie Carr, Mrs. Anne Cunningham, Ms. Anne Foglia, Mrs. Catherine Graziano, Sister Josepha Haskins, Dr. Daniel McGregor, Dr. Robert J. McKenna, Sister Roselina McKillop, Mr. John Mohr, Mrs. Bernadette Moniz, Mr. Carl Nykaza, Mr. Frederick Promades, Brother Michael Reynolds, Miss Ann Ring, Mr. Joseph Souza, Sister Mauricita Stapleton, Sister Mary Brenda Sullivan.

If you think you just can't contribute this year, think again--hard. And remember, last year Salve Regina received the Silver Award from United Way for our percentage of participation. . .Makes you kind of proud, doesn't it? So, let's go out and do it again this year, and let's make it a gold award!!

NOTICE TO THE COLLEGE COMMUNITY FROM SISTER LUCILLE MCKILLOP

Mrs. Mary McCarthy (housekeeper - Ochre Court) is retiring as of November 1, 1981. Mrs. McCarthy has served the College for twenty-five years.

As a gesture of appreciation for Mrs. McCarthy's years of devoted service, the College Community is invited to attend a coffee hour in honor of Mrs. McCarthy on Friday, October 30, 1981, at 10:00 a.m. in the State Dining Room of Ochre Court.

Please drop in to extend best wishes to Mrs. McCarthy.

FACULTY NEWS

MINDPOWER CAMPAIGN

Salve Regina College is continuing to participate with other Rhode Island colleges and universities in generating visibility and support for higher education. During this month several leading college administrators and educators are appearing on radio and television talk shows to discuss often debated issues in higher education.

This Sunday, October 18, at 6:30 am and 10:05 pm, Salve's Sister Sheila Megley, Vice President/Academic Dean, will be a guest on the WOTB FM-107 radio show, "Coastline". Joining Sister Sheila is Dr. Bill Ferrante, Vice President for Academic Affairs at the University of Rhode Island. Sister Sheila and Dr. Ferrante will discuss several key issues including reduced federal aid for students and research, college board scores, academic vs. athletic budgets, and changes in public vs. private college recruiting programs.

NEWS/BULLETIN

Sister Loretto O'Connor has spent the last two years as a scholar in residence. In that capacity, she has researched and presented in modern version an anthology of the prose of medieval England (1100-1485), taken from the three languages in which it was written - Latin, French and the several dialects of Middle English. The title of the soon to be published anthology is: Shared Harvest: Prose of Medieval England in Modern Version. The book will be published by the University Press of America, and is scheduled for marketing by mid-December, 1981. The text, a "first" of its kind, shares with the reader a harvest of long, neglected prose: chronicles with their medieval "journalism," geography, history (fictitious and otherwise); narrative prose in the forms of tales, legends, folklore, etc.

Another first will be The Disputed Questions of Alexander of Hales. The excerpts of this work to appear in the anthology were translated from the Medieval Latin by Dr. Lubomir Gleiman. This is the first time that this excerpt from Alexander of Hales has ever been translated into English. The excerpts were obtained from the Franciscan Research Center in Italy. It took Sister Loretto two years to find this particular piece of Medieval Latin prose.

More information concerning Shared Harvest will be in subsequent Newsbulletins.

ART DEPARTMENT

Jay Lacoutoure, Sister Arlene Woods, and David Jorgensen from the Art Department are among the artists listed in the recently published Cultural Affairs Directory, '81, published by the Newport Cultural Affairs Commission.

TEACHERS MANUAL PUBLISHED

A French Culture Activities Packet and Teachers Manual, written by Sister Eugena Poulin was recently published and distributed to all the school systems in Rhode Island. The book was published by The Rhode Island Heritage Commission. Sister Eugena collaborated on this project with Dr. Claire Quintal from the French Institute, Assumption College. Sister Ann Nelson was a consultant.

Sister Theresa McQueeney, Sister Marie Janelle and Sister Eugene Poulin attended the regional meeting of The American Association of Teachers of French held October 3-4 at Assumption College, Worcester, Massachusetts. Sister Eugena Poulin was invited to explain her book, French Culture Activities to the members of the Association.

FACULTY SENATE

The Faculty Senate will host a reception to welcome new faculty to the college. There will be wine and hors d'oeuvres served in the library of Ochre Court at 3:00 pm on October 28, 1981, prior to the general faculty meeting which is scheduled for 4:00 pm that day. We will plan to continue greeting our new colleagues after the meeting because of the possibility that some members of the faculty have class commitments at 3:00 pm. Please join us as we look forward to another year together.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR PARENTS WEEKEND

As in the past, student volunteers are needed to assist with registration, sell tickets, manage the coatroom at the dance and act as hosts and hostesses. Those who have volunteered in the past have enjoyed having the opportunity to participate in a very pleasant weekend. The upperclassmen Parents Weekend will be held on October 24 and 25. Your assistance, whether for part of one day or for longer, will contribute to the success of the event.

For further details, please contact the Office of the Dean of Student Development, 3rd floor, Ochre Court (Ext. 337/338).

ATTENTION: NURSING STUDENTS

The Career Planning and Placement Office is sponsoring a discussion on the topic: "How to Prepare for Your First Professional Job Interview" - What to look for in a hospital - What should I ask in an interview? - What questions should I be prepared to answer? Carol Colter, R.N., Recruiter for the Kaiser Foundation Hospitals, will be the guest speaker. The session will be held in the Pell Building at 11:00 am on Monday, October 19. Ms. Colter will also be available to discuss nursing opportunities with Kaiser between 9:00 - 11:00 am. All nursing students are welcome and encouraged to attend.

For more information contact Nina Kaull, Career Planning and Placement Office, O'Hare Academic Center, Room 121.

COUNSELING SERVICES

On Monday, October 19, in Conley Hall and on Monday, October 26, in the Miley Hall Alumni Lounge, the Counseling Services will hold a workshop entitled "How to Get the Most Out of College Life".
