FACULTY NEWS

On January 12, 1982, Sister Mary Consilii Reynolds began her classes at University College Galway, Ireland. As an "Occasional Student" - non-matriculating, Sister is pursuing a course in 16th-17th century Irish history and another in 18th-19th century Irish history. Following the Easter recess, Sister will take what is called a "specialty course", one lasting five weeks in which the class will study the comparisons and differences of ELIZABETH I's PLANTATION OF IRELAND AND THE ENGLISH COLONIZATION POLICY OF JAMESTOWN, VIRGINIA.

As a professor of history in an American 'sister college', Sister Mary Consilii has been awarded a non-fee grant and has been granted all the academic and library privileges of a faculty member while studying at University College Galway.

On January 19, 1982, Senator Robert J. McKenna received the Rhode Island Rehabilitation Association's 1982 Legislative Award at their Awards Banquet. CONGRATULATIONS!!!

On January 15, 1982, Sister Ann Nelson presented a slide/lecture to the Newport Chapter, American Association of Retired Persons.

Beginning on February 10, Sister Ann will be giving a five week course at the Edward King House Senior Citizen Center on the topics of current events. The class will be held from 2:00-3:00 pm each Monday.

Sister Theresa McQueeney and Sister Eugena Poulin attended the M. L. A. Convention held in New York City in December.

Historical Newport Engineer, Artist and Architects to be Discussed on Upcoming "Education Via Radio"

Mr. Leonard Panaggio and Dr. Robert J. McKenna are scheduled guests for the upcoming "Education Via Radio" program Wednesday, January 27, on WADK, radio 1540. Historical personages to be discussed include engineer George Goethols, artist John LaFarge, and Richard Morris Hunt and Stanford White, architects for, among others, The Breakers and Rosecliff mansions.

Mr. Panaggio is the state director of the tourist promotion division of the Department of Economic Development. He is also the author of "Portrait of Newport," a photo-documentary of historical Newport.

Sports Scene Varsity Basketball

The second half of the men's and women's varsity basketball seasons starts this weekend.

The men's team travels to Connecticut to play Thames Valley Tech, Friday at 8:00 pm, and both men's and women's teams travel to Massachusetts to play Nichols College on Saturday afternoon.

Coaches are optimistic for a successful second half.

Intramural Sports

Intramural Basketball competition starts this weekend. All captains are urged to contact the Intramural Sports Office for the specific schedule.

This year's leagues consist of seven women's teams and seven men's teams. Competition will take place throughout February and March.

Athletics

Prior to the holidays, the women's basketball team sponsored a clinic for thirty area girls at the Newport Boys' Club. Monica Provost, Colleen Fitzpatrick, Peggy Clarkin, Sheila Smith and Nettie Harper all demonstrated their basketball skill and knowledge.

Thank You!!

In a public manner I wish to thank any member of the college community who has purchased or will purchase a copy of my book, SHARED HARVEST. I hope you find it interesting, informative and insightful.

Several books remain available for sale. They are not displayed on the shelves; so please request your copy from one of the bookstore attendants. They will be happy to serve you.

Special commendation is due to Mrs. Lyon for assisting me with shipping and handling books that required mailing. She and her staff have been most gracious and helpful in this business procedure.

Sincerely and gratefully, Sister M. Loretto O'Connor
