12-11-1973

Reader's Theater Presents "Memories of Dylan Thomas"

Salve Regina College

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Reader's Theater Presents "Memories of Dylan Thomas"" (1973). Press Release Archive. 274.
https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/releases/274

READER'S THEATER PRESENTS "MEMORIES OF DYLAN THOMAS"

The Reader's Theater Workshop of Salve Regina College will present an original production, "Memories of Dylan Thomas" on Wednesday, December 19, at 8:00 p.m. in O'Hare Academic Center. There is no admission charge.

Robert Kulo, director of Reader's Theater at Salve, wrote "Memories of Dylan Thomas," specifically for the Salve Reader's Theater. The production combines reminisces of people who knew Dylan Thomas with selections of Thomas' work including, "And Death Shall Have No Dominion," and "A Child's Christmas in Wales."

Reader's Theater is an art form where the "reader" interprets literature for the audience without the aid of stage props, special lighting effects, etc. He talks directly to the audience and not to other actors as in traditional drama. This makes for more direct audience participation because they are a part of the drama and they have to imagine what the setting is, what the characters look like, and so on.

- 30 -

R.L.N.

121173km