JANUARY 17, 1964SALVE REGINA REPRESENTED AT INTERNATIONAL MISSION MEETING

Sister Mary Antonine, R.S.M., of Salve Regina's History Department and Sister Mary Martha, R.S.M., Mission Director at the college, will be delegates to the first annual conference of the Catholic Inter-American Cooperation Program, "CICOP", at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago, Illinois, January 20-21.

In the interest of Latin American and other missions, the group advances the promotion of the Lay Apostolate movement in the Americas. This growing activity provides the Catholic laity an opportunity to assist the priests and religious in the mission field.

Attending this conference will be: diocesan clergy, religious communities, Papal Volunteers and other lay groups serving Latin America, representatives of colleges and universities, mass membership organizations of Catholic laymen and laywomen, youth organizations, and newspaper and magazine editors and staffs, as well as mass communications organizations.
