FACULTY NEWS

At the request of those attending Sister Elizabeth McAuliffe's discussion on Critical Thinking last month, the discussion will be continued at 4:00 p.m. Wednesday, April 28, 1982 in 214 O'Hare.

Since refreshments again will be served, please call this office to let us know if you will attend.

Brother John Buckley of History/Politics Department recently attended the convention of the Organization of American Historians in Philadelphia.

Kitty Flood and Salve's Continuing Education Center for Exceptional Adults were featured in the April 18th issue of the Journal Magazine in the Providence Sunday Journal newspaper. The cover story and article focused on one innovative program or special service project that each college in Rhode Island provides to the local community. Pat Cole and Ellis Foster - students in the C.E.C.E.A. - were also mentioned in the article.

PERSPECTIVES IN ALCOHOL SERIES

This year's Perspectives on Alcohol series continues with two offerings this month. On Thursday evening, April 22, a workshop on alcohol will be held at 7:00 p.m. at the I.T.C. in Angelus Hall. Miss Patricia Hirt will address the group and show a film entitled "To Drink or Not to Drink." College Health

EDUCATION VIA RADIO SPOTLIGHTS ADMIRALS NIMITZ AND SPRUANCE ON APRIL 28

Naval Admirals Chester Nimitz and Raymond Spruance will be in the spotlight on the upcoming "Education via Radio" program Wednesday, April 28, on WADK, radio 1540.

Local historian Dr. Howard Browne, and Dr. Robert McKenna are the scheduled guests. They will discuss the still-evident Newport ties of the two men in addition to their significant military accomplishment.

SAFETY NOTE

Bicycle Theft Prevention: A bicycle worth riding is worth keeping! You can prevent your bike from theft and discourage a thief with the proper precautions:

1. Always lock your bicycle
2. Use a high security lock
3. Lock your bicycle properly (to a bike rack or other permanent object).
4. Register your bicycle.

OCHRE COURT LAWN

All students are requested to refrain from using the front lawn of Ochre Court as a short cut to and from the Academic area (O'Hare, Angelus, Library and McAuley Hall). The lawn is being seriously damaged.

The cooperation of the College community is requested. Please use the sidewalks walking to and from classes.

SUMMER TOUR GUIDES

The Admissions Office is looking for students to work as Tour Guides of Ochre Court for the summer. We are looking for enthusiastic and personable people who would be interested in learning about Ochre Court and welcoming summer visitors to the College. These positions are full-time. For further information, or to apply, contact Kate Horan in the Admissions Office, ext. 233.
