HIGHLIGHTING CLASS WEEKEND

The Salve Regina Class of 1965 will receive class rings at a formal ceremony on Friday at 2:30 p.m. in the Great Hall of Ochre Court, the college's main building.

One hundred juniors in formal academic garb will step through a giant replica of their class ring, a star sapphire, to receive their rings from Sister Mary Hilda, college president, in the presence of parents, relatives and friends. Reverend John M. Egan, O.P., Professor of Theology at Salve Regina College, will speak to the assembly. A tea and reception will follow.

On Friday evening from 8-12 o'clock, an informal dance will be held at the Muenchinger-King Hotel. Music will be provided by Marvin Harris and his combo.

The Great Hall of Ochre Court will be the scene of the Sapphire Ball, Saturday evening at eight, when juniors and their escorts will dance to the music of Ken Reeves Orchestra. Each girl will receive a sapphire charm as a souvenir of the evening.

Following an 11 o'clock Mass in the college chapel on Sunday, February 9, the juniors and their guests will hear Father Christopher Johnson speak at a Communion Breakfast at the Hotel Viking.
