Funds are accepted in this transaction only upon the following conditions, unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing.

Upon delivery of the funds to the Bank, it will take its customary steps for remittance, and payment will be made to the payee in the currency of the country to which remittance is to be made at the Bank's correspondent's buying rate for exchange on New York on the date of payment to the payee, unless the payee, by arrangement with the Bank's correspondent, provides for payment in some other form and pays all charges and costs to the Bank's correspondent in connection therewith. Refund will be made if requested by the customer, but only if and after the Bank receives confirmation of effective cancellation of the remittance abroad.

The Bank, on behalf of the customer, may make use of any correspondent, sub-agent or other agency, and shall not be responsible or liable for any default, negligence, errors, or misfeasance thereof, whether in identifying the payee or otherwise. In no case shall either the Bank or any correspondent, sub-agent or other agency be responsible or liable for any loss or damage resulting from delays, errors, mutilations, interruptions or omissions, occurring in the mails or on the part of any cable, wireless, radio or telegraph company or an employee of such company, or from any censorship, law or control, rightfully or wrongfully exercised, of any domestic or foreign government, or from any other cause beyond its control, and it is expressly understood that all such risks are assumed by the customer.
