Salve Regina College in Newport will conduct a special program on Thursday afternoon, March 19, in honor of Cornelius C. Moore, Esq., of Newport, Chairman Emeritus of the College's Advisory Board, following a 3:00 p.m. meeting of that board in the college library.

At 4:30 p.m., a portrait of Dr. Moore, a great benefactor of the college, will be unveiled and hung in Moore Hall on Ochre Point Avenue.

Dr. Moore gave Moore Hall, the former Gilbert Estate, then known as "Four Acres," to the college in 1950 in loving memory of his parents.

Included in the Advisory Board's afternoon program will be a brief business meeting and tour of the expanding campus. The program will conclude with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the college chapel, followed by a buffet supper in the State Dining Room of Ochre Court, the College's main building.
