SALVE REGINA COLLEGE STUDENT RECEIVES
PARIS ALLIANCE FRANCAISE SCHOLARSHIP

TUESDAY
APRIL 28

A Salve Regina College Sophomore and French Major, Miss Pauline L. Henault, has become the seventh Salve Regina student to win an Alliance Francaise Scholarship for a month's summer study in France. The award was made this week in connection with a play produced in French by the Salve Regina Alliance Francaise, directed by Mrs. Jose Ramos of the college's French Department.

Miss Henault, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Henault of 476 Dulude Avenue, Woonsocket, will spend the month of July in study and on cultural tour at the Residence of the Alliance Francaise in Paris. The Residence is affiliated with the University of Paris.

Miss Henault, a graduate of St. Clare High School, Woonsocket, has been on the Dean's List and a member of such campus activities as the Glee Club, Dramatics Club, and Art Club as well as the Alliance Francaise.

Following her month in Paris, Miss Henault plans a two-week tour of Europe, which will include a visit to Rome. She will return to Salve Regina College in September.
