NEWPORT COLLEGE THEATRE COMPANY TO PRESENT MEDIEVAL MORALITY PLAY
"EVERYMAN" FEBRUARY 26, 27, 28

The Newport College Theatre Company will present "Everyman," a medieval morality play on February 26, 27, and 28 at 8:00 p.m. in Ochre Court. The public is invited to attend. "Everyman" is considered the best example of the "fullscope" religious play because its theme is the saving of man's soul. Everyman is the universal symbol of man. The Newport College Theatre Company has incorporated the Dance Company and The Newport College Singers to aid in the play's interpretation.

Seating for the play is limited to 150 people. For more information, or to reserve tickets, call 847-6650, ext. 217. Tickets may also be purchased at Mercy Hall's Theatre Office, Room 207 between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. weekdays. Cost is $3.00 for adults, $1.00 for students and senior citizens.

"CONCERTS AT OCHRE COURT" HOSTS
CANTILENA WIND QUINTET FEBRUARY 27

The Cantilena Wind Quintet, professional free-lance musicians from the Boston and Providence areas, will perform chamber music for woodwinds by Haydn, Ravel, Arnold, Schuller and Berio on Sunday, February 27, at 2:00 p.m. The performance, is sponsored by the College and is partially funded by the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts through the New England Foundation for the Arts. It is the third of four "Concerts at Ochre Court" scheduled by the College for the 1982-83 year.

The Quintet's rich and varied repertoire extends across the entire spectrum of wind quintet literature, from the earliest quintets of the classical period to avant-garde works of the twentieth century. Of special note is the group's commitment to performing the music of women composers. The all-female Quintet has led the way in re-discovering neglected compositions of women composers of the past. Frequently, the Quintet presents new works by talented contemporary women composers.

Since their formation in 1975, the group has given more than 300 performances and has frequently appeared on National Public Radio's "Morning Pro Musica." The performance of the Quintet is open to the public. A $1 donation is requested. For more information, call Dr. Thomas Day at 847-6650, ext. 236.

SYMPOSIUM ON ORGANIZED CRIME

On Sunday, March 6, 1983, the Criminal Justice Club will sponsor a "Symposium on Organized Crime." Featured speakers will include: Mr. John F. Cicilline, well known Providence Defense Attorney; Mr. Jim Taricani, an Investigative Reporter from WJAR-TV Channel 10; Mr. Vincent Vespia, Chief of Police, South Kingston, R.I.; and Miss Tracy Breton, a Legal Reporter for the Providence Journal Bulletin. The Symposium will be held in O'Hare Academic Center - TB Room, at 7:30 p.m. All are invited to attend and hear this interesting discussion.

CAMPUS EVENTS AND NEWS

BLOOD DRIVE

College Health Services will hold a Blood Drive on Monday March 7, 1983. It will be held in Miley Hall, Alumni Lounge from 5:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. It is hoped that all those who could not donate on February 16th plus many many more will make an effort to volunteer on March 7th. Rhode Island is in great need of blood. Let's show the generosity of our students at Salve.

Any person who donated blood on February 16th cannot donate again at this time.

FACULTY NEWS

Barbara Sylvia, Dean of Student Development, has an article published in the February issue of the College Personnel Association of Rhode Island newsletter. Barbara's article, entitled "Orientation: An Opportunity To Teach" outlines the goals and objectives of the Summer Orientation Program conducted each summer for in-coming freshmen students. All CPARI members at Salve have a copy of the newsletter; additional copies are available at Counseling Services in North Hall.

DR. ROBERT J. McKENNA was recently elected to the position of President of the Rhode Island Historical Society.

THANK YOU

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to all those who offered prayers, condolences and comfort during the recent death of my mother, Rita M. Petrarca.

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE OFFERS CHEMISTRY UPDATE WORKSHOP FOR HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONALS

A five-week chemistry update workshop for registered nurses and other health care professionals, is being offered on Tuesdays beginning March 8, at Salve Regina-The Newport College. Each class will meet from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the physics lab of O'Hare Academic Center.

The workshop is designed for individuals who wish to strengthen their skills in contemporary inorganic, organic and physiological chemistry as those skills relate to the health care field. Participants must have taken a previous course in chemistry at the secondary or post-secondary level.

Cost of the workshop is $50. No college credit will be awarded. For more information, call Sister Augustine San Souci, nursing department, at 847-6650, ext. 215.

GREAT QUAKER MEETING HOUSE, MARTIN LUTHER KING CENTER SUBJECTS OF UPCOMING "EDUCATION VIA RADIO" ON WADK

Newport's Great Quaker Meeting House and the Martin Luther King Center were the topics of discussion on the "Education via Radio" program Wednesday, February 23 on WADK. Esther Fisher Benson, a member of the board of directors of the Newport Historical Society, and Katharine Ostrander, associate professor of social work and president of the board of directors of the King Center, were the scheduled guests.

CAMPUS EVENTS AND NEWS

The original building of the Great Quaker Meeting House located on the corner of West Broadway and Marlborough streets, was built in 1699. Because it served as a regional meeting place for Quakers, its size continued to grow with Quaker membership. In the middle of the 18th century, approximately half of Newport's population were Quakers. Today, the Newport Historical Society owns the building and its restoration was completed in 1974.

Built more than 240 years after the Great Quaker Meeting House, the Martin Luther King Center on West Broadway served as a USO center for minority groups during World War II. Today the building houses a community center offering tutoring services, college preparation classes, recreation programs and a day-care center, among other services.

SAFETY TIPS

Personal property is your responsibility. Protect it from theft.

College property deserves your protection, too.

Fire safety tip:

Fire Escapes: Are meant to provide an exit from fire.

Know how to find them - even if it is dark and smoky.

Do not use them as porches or balconies.

Keep them free of obstructions (such as plants, bicycles and storage boxes).
