SALVE REGINA COLLEGE FOREIGN STUDENTS
TO BE HONORED BY GOVERNOR CHAFEE

Salve Regina College foreign students will be presented certificates of recognition by Governor John H. Chafee at formal ceremonies tomorrow morning, May 7, at the Rhode Island School of Design auditorium. The occasion marks the recognition of foreign students studying in Rhode Island institutions of higher learning.

Salve Regina College foreign students are representative of three geographic areas, India, Thailand and Central America, and number ten at the present time.

Dr. F. Kenneth Brasted, Director of Public Relations, will represent Salve Regina and present the students to the governor.
