CAMPUS NEWS and EVENTS

NEWPORT PAINTER TO SPEAK AT SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Newport painter John Stephan will speak before Salve's Art Club Thursday, April 7, at 7:30 p.m. in Mercy Hall. The public is invited.

Mr. Stephan, whose career spans more than 50 years, will talk about his work and attitudes toward painting, from his activity in the legendary New York School of the 1940's, to his current work of disc-like color relationships. He has exhibited extensively.

For more information, call the College's art department, ext. 379.

FACULTY NEWS

Bernard G. Masterson, chairman of the Theatre department, has been selected to judge the finals of the Rhode Island High School Drama Festival on April 8th, 9th, and 10th. Mr. Masterson's task is to select ten to fifteen All-State High School actors and actresses from about 250 high school students throughout Rhode Island.

Sister Elizabeth McAuliffe recently served as a judge for the Twenty-Second Annual Massachusetts Science Fair held at Durfee High School, Fall River, Massachusetts.

William Reis in the Art Department has been selected to exhibit in the 7th National Watercolor exhibition in the Springfield Art Gallery in Springfield, Illinois.

GRADUATE STUDIES OPEN HOUSE

The College will host a Graduate Studies Open House Sunday, April twenty-fourth from two to five p.m. in Ochre Court. Anyone interested in learning more about the masters degree programs in Administration of Justice, Human Development, Health Services Administration or Liberal Studies is invited to attend. College representatives will be on hand to discuss admission and degree requirements, veteran's assistance and part-time attendance. Early registration for summer classes will also be held. For more information call the Admissions Office ext. 233.

THE NEWPORT COLLEGE THEATRE COMPANY

The Newport College Theatre Company will present "Blithe Spirit" on April 29th, April 30th, May 6th, and May 7th at 8:00 p.m. at the Newport Casino Theatre. Admission for adults is $4.50, for students and senior citizens $2.50. Tickets for all four performances will go on sale Monday April 11th. Reservations can be made through contacting by phone (ext. 217) 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday starting April 11th. Tickets may also be purchased at the door on the night of each performance.

SAFETY NOTE - FIRE HAZARDS ON CAMPUS

Smoking Materials: Carelessness with cigarettes, matches, etc., accounts for the greatest number of residence hall fires. A cigarette that falls on an overstuffed chair or mattress can smoulder for hours, then suddenly burst into flames.

Decorations: Some decorations ignite easily and allow a fire to spread rapidly. These include holiday decorations, large posters, filmy curtains and flammables tacked to ceilings.

CAMPUS NEWS and EVENTS

BOOKSTORE

For the entire month of April the bookstore will be offering savings of 20 - 50% on a great variety of merchandise, including selected clothing, posters, tote bags, room accessories, back packs, and much more. Stop in and pick up a bargain.

A reminder to seniors and Masters candidates: Be sure you have been measured for your cap and gown. Any time during bookstore hours.
