THE NEWPORT HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Museum and Library

The Newport Historical Society has maintained a library and museum of Newport and Rhode Island history since its incorporation in 1854. For more than 135 years the Society has continued to grow both in membership and in the extent and diversity of its collection.

There are periodic exhibits in the Museum’s gallery. These exhibits highlight episodes of Newport’s past from its founding in 1639 to the present.
Society activities include lectures, bus tours, walking tours, and educational outreach programs and special events. The Seventh Day Baptist Meeting House, built in 1729, now attached to the main building, is a treasure of Colonial Architecture. The library and manuscript collections contain a wealth of information for researchers.

Hours: The Society and Museum are open to the public
Tuesday through Friday 9:30 AM to 4:30 PM
Saturday (September 1 to June 14) 9:30 AM to 12 Noon
(June 15 to August 30) 9:30 AM to 4:30 PM

The Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House, 17 Broadway, illustrates the history of Colonial America through the daily life of individual Newporters.

Hours: June 16 to August 30
Tuesday through Saturday 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM

The Quaker Meeting House, built in 1699, the oldest religious structure in Newport is open for viewing by appointment.

For information on current exhibits and programs please call (401) 846-0813.

Newport History solicits original articles on any aspect of Newport County history. All submissions will be considered by the Editorial Committee for publication. Obtain information from the editor at Society headquarters.
