SALVE REGINA COLLEGE SUMMER
SESSION STARTS MONDAY, JUNE 29

The Summer Session of Salve Regina College will start Monday morning, June 26. The Handicapped Child Program will be conducted at the Underwood School on Harrison Avenue, and the other courses will be offered on campus.

The Handicapped Child Program consists of a One Week Intensive Survey, June 29-July 3, and a Workshop for teachers of mentally retarded but educable pupils, June 29-July 31. The Survey, which may be taken separately, will be the introductory week of the Workshop.

Among the previously listed distinguished group of educators and physicians who will serve as staff, consultants, and lecturers, it has been announced that Mr. Paul Sherlock, Director of Special Education, R. I. Department of Education will replace Sister Mary Suzanne, R. S. M. as the lecturer Tuesday morning in the Survey and Workshop.

The Handicapped Child Program is being conducted by the College in cooperation with the Newport School Department and its superintendent, Charles A. O'Connor, Jr. Registrations will still be accepted Monday morning at the Underwood School for both the Survey and the Workshop.
