SALVE REGINA COLLEGE PURCHASES
NEW RESIDENT HALL

To provide for the increase in enrollment next month with 700 students expected, Salve Regina College has purchased Althorp, the estate at the corner of Ruggles and Lawrence Avenues, formerly owned by Countess Marguerite de Pourtales, it was announced today by Sister Mary Emily, R. S. M. , President.

The college has also rented Shady Lawn, located on Narragansett Avenue. This makes 8 Salve Regina College buildings available for housing 371 boarding students.

Miley Hall, the college's new resident hall and student center, will not be completed until the end of 1964. At that time students will be moved into it from other residences on the campus to permit expansion of academic facilities on campus.
