MONDAY
SEPT. 14, 1964SALVE REGINA COLLEGE WELCOMES ITS LARGEST FRESHMAN CLASS

Two hundred and fifty freshmen were welcomed to Salve Regina College this morning by Sister Mary Emily, R. S. M., President. They are representative of 13 states, China, the Republic of Panama, and the British West Indies.

In addressing the freshmen, Sister Mary Emily announced that Althorp, the estate recently purchased for dormitory use, has been designated as Founders' Hall to honor the founding faculty and administration of the College.

The arrival of the 154 resident students last night initiated a week of freshman registration, orientation, and academic placement testing. Later in the week, there will be a special assembly for resident students, "This is Newport," and an invitation picnic sponsored by Providence College at Lincoln Woods.

The 250 freshmen this fall compares with last year's 175. These 250 were selected from over 800 applicants.

Registration for upper classes will begin Friday and Saturday, September 18 and 19. All classes start Monday, September 21.
