ANNOUNCEMENTS

SALVE REGINA'S "CONCERTS AT OCHRE COURT" SERIES TO PRESENT THE TORTOLANO FAMILY

"Concerts at Ochre Court," sponsored by Salve Regina, will present a concert of chamber music performed by the Tortolano Family on Sunday, October 28 at 3:00 p.m. in the State Dining Room of Ochre Court. The Tortolanos are one of New England's most distinguished musical families. Their performance will include a cantata by Handel, pieces by Tchaikovsky, Holst and Beethoven and a cello suite by Bach.

Dr. William Tortolano, pianist and concert organist, is a professor of music at St. Michael's College in Vermont. His wife, Martha Kane Tortolano, a soprano, has performed extensively in well-received concerts throughout the United States and Europe. William Jr. is currently pursuing a graduate degree at the Yale University School of Music and Jonathon Tortolano is studying cello with Robert Ripley at the New England Conservatory of Music.

The Tortolano Family's performance, the second of three "Concerts at Ochre Court" scheduled at Salve Regina for the academic year 1984-85, is open to the public. A donation is requested.

NURSING CAREER DAY

The Career Planning and Placement Office is sponsoring a Nursing Career Day on Wednesday, November 7, 1984, from 10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. at Ochre Court. Representatives from more than 35 hospitals, medical agencies and nursing care centers will be present.

The schedule for the events is as follows:

10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. - Recruiters will have displays set up at Ochre Court and will be available to discuss employment opportunities with all students.

2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. - Hospitals will conduct senior interviews.

The Nursing Career Day is not only for seniors. Students interested in the nursing profession may wish to discuss summer job opportunities, internships and other employment concerns. It is important that the Career Day be enthusiastically supported by the College Community as it will benefit future on-campus recruitment of Salve Regina students.

SALVE REGINA OUTSTANDING ALUMNA TO PRESENT LECTURE/SLIDE SHOW ON POLAND

Salve Regina alumna, Dr. Mary E. McGann '69, will present a lecture and slide show entitled "A Window on Poland, 1981-1984," on Thursday, November 8, 8:00 p.m. in O'Hare Academic Center. The lecture will focus on her recent teaching experience in Poland as well as Pope John Paul's visit.

Dr. McGann taught in Warsaw during the end of the Solidarity era and under the imposition of Martial Law, 1981-1983. During this period she was associate director of the American Studies Center, Warsaw University. It was for Dr. McGann's dedicated service in Poland that Salve Regina College awarded her the 1984 Outstanding Alumni Award. Anyone interested in attending the lecture should contact the Alumni Office at 847-6650, extension 223.

FALL FOOD DRIVE

The Social Work Department is sponsoring a fall food drive to raise food as well as cash donations for the Newport County Food Bank called "Feed-a-Friend." Boxes are located in each College building for the collection of canned foods and staples. Collection cans for cash donations are placed in Faculty Services, faculty cafeteria in Ochre Court and Miley cafeteria. Checks may be made out to "Feed-a-Friend" and given to the Social Work Department, located in Angelus Hall, or to Diane Caplin, Director of Academic Advising, South Hall. Every cent contributed goes directly for the purchase of food for hungry people. There are no administrative costs for this program which is managed by a voluntary coalition of social service agencies. Please help. It will mean so much to so many!
