THE NEWPORT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Newport Historical Society has maintained a library and museum of Newport and Rhode Island history since its incorporations in 1854. Three centuries of political, business and family manuscripts, including the early records of the Town Council housed for the City of Newport, together with important holdings of maps, prints, photographs, newspapers and maritime memorabilia, are preserved by the Society as are furniture, silver, paintings and ceramics which give it a representative regional collection of the American decorative arts.

Incorporated into the Society's fireproof building is the 1729 Newport Seventh Day Baptist Church. In addition the Society owns the Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House (1675) and the Friends Meeting House (1699).

Hours: The Society is open to the public
Tuesday through Friday 9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.
Saturday 9:30 A.M. to 12 Noon
Closed Sundays, Mondays, Holidays

The Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House and the Friends Meeting House are open June 13 to August 30. Tuesday through Saturday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Newport History solicits original articles on any aspect of Newport County history. All submissions will be considered by the editorial committee for publication. Obtain information from the editor at Society headquarters.
