NEARLY 100 SALVE REGINA STUDENTS
WORKING ON "THE SOUND OF MUSIC"

Student involvement is the word these days on the campus of Salve Regina College in Newport in connection with the Regina Players forthcoming production of "The Sound of Music."

Rehearsals involve a cast of 44, most of whom are Salve Regina students; the production staff consists of 44 students.

The musical play is being directed by Miss Joan David, director of dramatics at Salve Regina.
Musical direction is by George Conte of The Rhode Island Philharmonic Orchestra, 20 or more members of whom will comprise the orchestra for the musical.

Cast in the leading role of Maria is Mary Corey, a Junior who has played important roles in Salve Regina productions for the past two years. Thomas Fennessey, well-known dramatic and musical star of Providence College, will play Maria's husband, Captain Georg von Trapp.
