SALVE REGINA OFFERS MASSAGE THERAPY COURSE

Salve's graduate studies program in Holistic Counseling will offer a four-part course entitled Massage Therapy, to be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays, April 4, 11, 25 and May 2. This special two-credit course will conclude the series of therapy courses offered by the College and structured by Dr. Jack Childs, Director of Salve's Holistic Counseling Department.

Instructor Ray Moriyasu, a graduate of Brown University with a master's degree in counseling from Rhode Island College, is a licensed massage therapist. Through a blend of theory and experiential learning, Moriyasu will teach students how to touch, the role of intention to touch and about the current research on skin as the external nervous system. Stress will be discussed as will the ways in which our life styles might be modulated to reduce its accumulation. For further information on Massage Therapy, contact Dr. Jack Childs at extension 407.
