The Society notes with regret the death of:
John Payson Adams
Mrs. John Nicholas Brown
Richard J. Callahan
Miss Margaret M. Shea
Mrs. Sheldon Whitehouse
The Society notes with deep regret the passing of Capt. Wilbur T. Holmes, U.S.N. (retired). Captain Holmes served for over six years as Executive Director of the Society until his retirement in 1982. During his tenure in that position Capt. Holmes helped turn the Society towards a bright future. After his retirement, Capt. Holmes went on to the Board of Directors and became the Society’s Treasurer. Capt. Holmes was also active at the Newport Artillery Company and numerous other organizations both in Newport and Jamestown. Capt. Holmes will be missed by all who shared his love for the cultural life of this area.

A contribution on behalf of the Staff, Board of Directors, and members of the Society was made to the Organ Fund at St. Matthews Episcopal Church in Jamestown.
THE NEWPORT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Newport Historical Society has maintained a library and museum of Newport and Rhode Island history since its incorporations in 1854. Three centuries of political, business and family manuscripts, including the early records of the Town Council housed for the City of Newport, together with important holdings of maps, prints, photographs, newspapers and maritime memorabilia, are preserved by the Society as are furniture, silver, paintings and ceramics which give it a representative regional collection of the American decorative arts.

Incorporated into the Society’s fireproof building is the 1729 Newport Seventh Day Baptist Church. In addition the Society owns the Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House (1675), the Friends Meeting House (1699), and Green End Fort.

Hours: The Society is open to the public
Tuesday through Friday 9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.
Saturday 9:30 A.M. to 12 Noon
Closed Sundays, Mondays, Holidays

The Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House and the Friends Meeting House are open June to Labor Day. Tuesday through Saturday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Newport History solicits original articles on any aspect of Newport County history. All submissions will be considered by the editorial committee for publication. Obtain information from the editor, Eileen Warburton, at Society headquarters.
