FRIDAY IS PAN AMERICAN DAY
AT SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

A Pan American Exhibition will be held at Salve Regina College on Friday, March 26, from 10:00 A. M. to 5:00 P. M.
Sponsored by the Spanish Club, it will take place in the auditorium of Mercy Hall (corner of Leroy and Lawrence Avenues).

The public is cordially invited; free.

Ambassadors of the countries involved have loaned interesting materials for their countries' displays. Murals and paintings have been contributed by the Rhode Island School of Design. And the Naval War College is allowing the Spanish Club to use its Pan American flags for this occasion.

Students from Salve Regina College will explain the history and culture of each country to those interested in different aspects of the displays.

From 3:30 to 4:30 P. M., the Exhibition will feature a group of Latin American students from the various Pan American countries doing the dances of the seven Republics represented and wearing the regional costumes typical of their countries.
