The objective of this program is to assist nurses to update management and teaching skills most needed to improve the quality of patient care in the institutions or agencies in which they are employed. The program offers short-term training courses to nurses in administrative, supervisory, and teaching positions who may be unable to undertake longer periods of full-time academic study. Such courses provide a means by which nurses are enabled to meet new developments in patient care and in community health practice.

The program is administered by the Division of Nursing, Public Health Service, U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Washington, D. C.
