WORLD HUNGER CONCERT TO FEATURE DUKE'S MEN OF YALE UNIVERSITY

Salve Regina will sponsor a World Hunger Concert, featuring the Duke's Men of Yale University, on Friday, October 16. The performance, organized by the Music Department and the College Activities Office, will take place in Ochre Court from 8:00 to 9:15 p.m. A reception in Ochre Court will follow.

The Duke's Men of Yale are an a cappella group of twenty male students who combine humor and music to entertain their audiences. They are directed and managed entirely by their own members.

Tickets are $3.00 and may be purchased from the Music Department in Cecilia Hall and the College Activities Office in Wakehurst. Proceeds from the concert will be distributed to international hunger agencies and local soup kitchens.

Seating for the performance is limited. Be sure to get your tickets early and support this worthwhile event.

FALL HOMECOMING

Fall Homecoming festivities will begin on Friday, October 16 with the World Hunger Concert. Other events scheduled for the weekend will include Fall Games between the classes; men's soccer; Gong Show; Homecoming Dance in Ochre Court, and a cookout.

Don't miss out on the fun. For more information contact the College Activities Office at extension 490.

LITERACY SERIES

Salve Regina College is sponsoring a series of weekend workshops on "Strategies to Stimulate Growth" for teachers (kindergarten through grade 8), administrators, parents and tutors. The workshops will run through December 5 and will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. in O'Hare Academic Center.

The purpose of the Saturday workshops is to present theoretical knowledge along with practical experience that will enable the participants to stimulate literacy growth in students. Credit may be earned and applied toward Rhode Island Teacher Certification. Although early registration is preferred, persons may also register one-half hour prior to the workshop.

FACULTY NEWS

Sister Elizabeth A. McAuliffe, Assistant Professor of Education, has been invited to present a paper at the Fall Conference of the Association of Teachers of Mathematics in New England. The title of the paper is "Math Anxiety--Test Anxiety: Friends or Foes?" This paper explores two questions: (1) To what degree are math anxiety and test anxiety related? (2) What are the curriculum implications of this relationship?

Sister Elizabeth also has recently been appointed to the Newport County Catholic Regional School Board.
