CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The Music Department's annual Christmas Concert will be held on Friday, December 11 and Saturday, December 12 at 8:00 p.m. in Ochre Court. Performing at the popular event will be the A Cappella, Chamber and Madrigal Choruses conducted by Brother James Loxham, along with the Chamber Band conducted by Mr. Bruce Abbott.

Among the selections to be performed by the choruses are "Carol of the Bells," "Ding Dong! Merrily on High," "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming," "Let It Snow," "The Christmas Song" and a modern version of "The Twelve Days of Christmas." The Concert Band will perform selections of traditional French Noels, "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" and "Sleigh Ride." Both Band and Chorus will combine to conclude the program with Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus."

Tickets for the Christmas Concert are $5.00 for general admission, $2.50 for Salve faculty, staff and students. Tickets go on sale Monday, November 30 at Cecilia Hall between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. No tickets will be reserved.

Sister Virginia Walsh of the Sociology Department recently made a presentation to the Professional Religious Educators of Providence. Her topic, "Economic Justice For Women," focused principally on the roots of economic injustice which exists in the labor market and those factors in family life which have contributed to the feminization of poverty in the United States today. Her presentation also offered reflections on the hearing which the Bishops' Pastoral, "Economic Justice For All," has on changing the economic status of women.
