

Salve Regina University

Digital Commons @ Salve Regina

Newsbulletin

Archives and Special Collections

2-5-1988

Newsbulletin vol. 18, no. 8

Salve Regina College

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin>

Part of the Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Salve Regina College, "Newsbulletin vol. 18, no. 8" (1988). Newsbulletin. 398.
<https://digitalcommons.salve.edu/newsbulletin/398>

Rights Statement

In Copyright - Educational Use Permitted. URI: <http://rightsstatements.org/vocab/InC-EDU/1.0/>

This Item is protected by copyright and/or related rights. You are free to use this Item in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. In addition, no permission is required from the rights-holder(s) for educational uses. For other uses, you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s).

SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Published by the Office of Public Relations, Ext. 208

BI-WEEKLY

VOL 18 NO 8

February 5, 1988

INSIGHTFUL VISION: TWO PHOTOGRAPHERS

The photographic work of Susan Eve Jahoda and Laura McPhee is currently on display at the McKillop Gallery. The exhibition, "Insightful Vision: Two Photographers," will run through February 27th with a closing reception and artists' talk in the gallery on Friday, February 26 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. The talk will be part of the Woman Connection's Conference III program.

The Woman's Connection, designed to explore the personal and social transformation of women in the 1980's, will be held on campus Thursday, February 25 through Saturday, February 27. Men and women are encouraged to attend the events which are open to the public, free of charge. For Conference information contact Katharine Ostrander, Planning Committee Chair, extension 241, or Sister Virginia Walsh, extension 339. Brochures are available.

* * *

CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

For the third consecutive year, Salve Regina will host a chamber music festival for high school musicians on Saturday, February 6 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The festival will take place in Ochre Court's State Dining Room. The entire day's performance will be open, free of charge, to the public.

The students' talents will be evaluated by cellist Karen Kaderavek of the Boston Chamber Music Society and Mark Malkovich, Director of the Newport Music Festival.

For further information contact Bruce Abbott at the Music Department, extension 446.

SALVE REGINA AND VILLANOVA CHORUSES TO PERFORM IN JOINT CONCERT

The choruses of Salve Regina College will host the Villanova University Singers, an all-male group, on Saturday, February 6 at 8:00 p.m. in Ochre Court. Tickets for the concert are $2.50 for the general public and $1.50 for students and senior citizens. For tickets or information call the Music Department at extension 445.

* * *

CAREER AWARENESS WEEK

The Career Planning and Placement Office is planning an exciting week of events from February 29 through March 4, which will include speakers from various fields, presentations on resume preparation, job search techniques, and interview skills. Watch for further details.

* * *

FACULTY NEWS

NEW FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

Johnnie W. Britton, Jr. appointed Assistant Professor of Management. He is a graduate of the United States Army Command and General Staff College, the Industrial College of the Armed Forces and the Naval War College. He also holds a master of arts degree in Urban Studies and a master of business administration degree in Management from Claremont Graduate School.

* * *

Harold E. Lawber, Jr. appointed Lecturer of Economics. He holds a bachelor of arts and a master's degree in Economics from North Carolina State University and is currently a doctoral candidate at the University of Connecticut.

* * *

Roger J. Smith appointed Assistant Professor of Management. He holds a bachelor of science degree from the United States Naval Academy and a master of business administration from Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. He is also a graduate of the Naval War College.

* * *

F A C U L T Y N E W S

Sister Lucille McKillop, Salve Regina College President, was the guest speaker at the 15th Annual Prayer Breakfast held Wednesday, February 3 at the Naval Education and Training Center. Prayer breakfast groups were started in the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives in 1942. The idea expanded into the Presidential Prayer Breakfast under Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1953 and then turned into the current National Prayer Breakfast.

* * *

Dr. Kerry Fater, Nursing Department, was recently included as a contributor in the book entitled Critical Care Plans: Guidelines for Patient Care by Moorhouse, Geissler, and Doenges. Her topic was "Sepsis/Septicem/Septic Shock." The book was published by F. A. Doers Co.

* * *

Sister Rosalind Kiernan, former Director of College Health Services, and Sister Norma Orme, former faculty member in the Spanish Department, will visit Belize this month where Sister Rosalind will be guest of honor at the re-dedication of St. Joseph's Health Clinic, which she established thirty years ago.

On the evening of this year's Governor's Ball, Senator Claiborne Pell, Chairman of the U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee, acknowledged the efforts of the Sisters of Mercy in bringing health care, education and social services to the people of Central America and stated that their efforts have done as much as those of any government toward furthering peace and justice in this area.

* * *

Brother James Loxham, Music Department, had an article on women's choirs published in the winter edition of the Newsletter of the Rhode Island Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association.

* * *

S T A F F N E W S

Mr. John Hillman has recently joined the Information Systems staff at Salve Regina as the Manager/Director of the Application Development of the College-wide Information System. A graduate of Harvard University, he was formerly employed by Unisys Corporation as a Senior Application Analyst.

* * *

S T A F F N E W S (continued)

Bernice Whitaker, Director of Career Planning and Placement, recently attended a meeting between the Technology Council of R.I. and the R.I. Colleges, held at the Bostitch plant in East Greenwich. This meeting, attended by representatives from all state and private colleges, included a tour of the plant, a presentation by key executives of Bostitch, and an informative question and answer period. Several Rhode Island firms have hosted similar meetings to enhance the lines of communication between business/industry and higher education regarding employment practices.

* * *

Deadline for the next issue of the NEWSBULLETIN is Friday, February 12, 1988.

