COVENANT HOUSE REPRESENTATIVE TO SPEAK AT SALVE REGINA

The Campus Ministry Office will host a presentation on Covenant House, a New York based program which provides help and support to homeless and runaway youth, on Thursday, March 3, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the O'Hare Auditorium. Ann Long, a representative from Covenant House, will speak on "An Immediate Response to Homeless Youth in Need."

The presentation is open to the public, free of charge. For further information contact Diane Lowe Comerford, Director of Campus Ministry, at ext. 302.

"IRELAND IN SONG"

In celebration of Newport's Irish Heritage Month, the Salve Regina College Chorus will perform in concert on Friday, March 4 and Saturday, March 5. The concert, "Ireland in Song," will begin at 8:00 p.m. in Ochre Court.

The College Chorus, conducted by Brother James Loxham, will perform a variety of Irish pieces including "Minstrel Boy," "Irish National Anthem," "Mountains of Mourne," and many more. The concert will also feature solo performances. Tickets for "Ireland in Song" are $5.00 for the general public and $2.50 for senior citizens and students. They may be purchased 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Cecilia Hall and between 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. in the Great Hall of Ochre Court. Tickets will also be available at the door.

NEWEST SALVE CHAMPIONS

The Salve Regina College Women's Basketball Team coached by Lynn Sheedy and Laurie St. Jean, has won the Commonwealth Coastal Conference Championship. The Lady Newporters finished their conference season with an 11-1 record (17-6) overall which earned them undisputed possession of first place.

The Salve Regina College Club Hockey Team coached by Tom Farrea is the New England Small College Hockey Association Champion. Last Sunday, the hockey team dethroned defending New England Small College Hockey Association champion Clark University of Worcester, Mass., 4-3 in overtime at the Thayer Rink in Warwick. The Saturday before, the team, which was 13-8-1 in its fourth season, defeated the number two team in the tournament, the University of Hartford, 6-2.

Nicole Arabolos, a senior majoring in chemistry, has been awarded a full tuition scholarship to study for her Ph.D. in chemistry at Brown University. Nicole was also awarded a $9,500 graduate teaching assistantship by the Brown University graduate school. The assistantship is renewable annually until she completes her doctoral studies.

During her junior year at Salve, Nicole was honored by the R.I. Section of the American Chemical Society as the outstanding student majoring in chemistry.

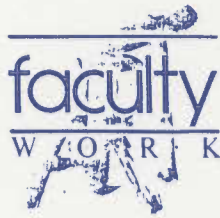

Carol LaSalle, a senior majoring in chemistry, has won a full tuition Fellowship to pursue doctoral studies in chemistry at Princeton University. The Fellowship also includes an annual stipend of $10,000.

Carol was the recipient of the Alvin D. Fuller Junior Research Fellowship of the American Cancer Society during her junior year. She received a $1,500 grant to do cancer research under the direction of Joel Greenberger, M.D. at the University of Massachusetts Medical Center in Worcester, Mass. She will also be honored as the outstanding senior chemistry student, by the American Institute of Chemists at a dinner to be held in April in Boston.

WE HAVE A WINNER!

Congratulations to Miss Joely Minutella of Lloyd Harbor, New York, who is the lucky $1,000 winner of the 1988 Parents Association Raffle. Joely is the sister of sophomore Debbie Minutella. We are all grateful to the many Salve Regina parents and friends who contributed to the success of this raffle. The net proceeds of $5,400 will be presented by the Association of the College to help fund campus activities.

FACULTY NEWS

Sister Lucille McKillop, President, recently spoke at the Pawtucket Public Library on "Occupied Ireland - Why?" The lecture was part of the library's series "Ireland & Her People," cosponsored by the Rhode Island Heritage Commission, the Irish Sub-Committee and the American/Irish Cultural Exchange Commission.

Dr. Heath Twichell, Associate Professor of International Relations, recently gave a talk entitled: "American Foreign Policy at the Close of the Reagan Era: Where Do We Go From Here?" as part of a Winter Lecture Series for residents of Martha's Vineyard sponsored by The Nathan Mayhew Seminars. The talk took place before an audience of fifty people on the campus of The Seminars in Vineyard Haven, Massachusetts.

Michael Thombs, Assistant Professor of Information Systems Science, recently attended the Florida Instructional Computing Conference (FICC). He also published an interactive marketing diskette for Nova University. The Diskette contains an online college catalog listing all graduate degree programs for the University. The diskettes were distributed at the FICC exhibit hall and at sessions that dealt with new marketing strategies and technology. Some 3000 diskettes have been published.

Dr. Jorn Zeuge, Mathematics Department, and Dr. Michael DiMaio, Liberal Studies Department, have recently had accepted for publication an article entitled "Ambiguitas Constantiniana the Caeleste Signum Dei Constantine the Great." It will be published, by Byzantion: Revue Internationale des Etudes Byzantines in late 1988. Additionally, Dr. DiMaio has had an article, entitled "Smoke in the Wind: Zonaras' use of Philostorgius, Zosimus, John of Antioch, and John of Rhodes in his narrative on the Neo-Flavian Emperors." accepted for publication in the same journal.
