TWO SALVE REGINA SENIORS RECEIVE DIETETIC INTERNSHIPS

Two seniors at Salve Regina College, majoring in Home Economics, received word today that they had been accepted by each of the two institutions or corporations to which they had applied for a dietetic internship for 1965-66. This indicates that four organizations were interested in securing Salve Regina graduates because of their fine credentials covering their work, experience, and recommendations. Each student was limited to two such applications.

Miss Ellen Jane Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Donnelly, 189 Garden Street, Fall River, Mass., has accepted the internship at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center, Oklahoma City, effective September 1, 1965.

Miss Mary Jane Halloran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Halloran, 14 Holly Street, Gloucester, Massachusetts, will start her internship at The Eastman Kodak Company, Rochester, New York, on June 30.

Ellen Donnelly has participated in many extra-curricular activities at the college, including the Commuters Club; Home Economics Club, of which she was an officer; Student Council, of which she is currently vice president; National Federation of Catholic College Students; Sigma Phi Sigma, honorary sorority; Fall River Area Club; and Biology Club. Last summer she was selected as a participant in the Army Dietetic Summer Practicum, assigned for four weeks to Valley Forge General Hospital, Phoenixville, Pennsylvania.

Mary Jane Halloran is president of the Home Economics Club; and during her four years at Salve Regina College she has participated in the activities of the Queen's Choristers, Maria Regina Sodality, Women's Recreation Association, Mission Unit, and National Federation of Catholic College Students.

Following the completion of their internships, Miss Donnelly and Miss Halloran will become members of the American Dietetic Association.
