AWARD PRESENTATION FOR MODEL GENERAL ASSEMBLY BY SALVE REGINA COLLEGE

Representatives of the International Relations Club of Salve Regina College will present a trophy to the student delegation from St. Bernard's High School, New London, Connecticut, on May 18, at a school-wide assembly at the school. The delegation from St. Bernard's was voted the most effective delegation at the Second Model General Assembly of the United Nations held at the Newport college on April 7, 1966.

The presentation will be made by Miss Yeyette Berendes, President of the International Relations Club, and Miss Constance Quirk, Vice-President-elect of the Club for 1966-67. The Rev. Edward S. Winsor, Rector of St. Columba's Chapel, Middletown, R.I., who was President of the Model General Assembly, and Mr. Robert McKenna, Assistant Professor of Philosophy and Politics and moderator of the International Relations Club, will also assist in the award ceremony. The College will also be represented by Sister Mary Audrey, R.S.M., Dean of Admissions, and Sister Patricia Marie, R.S.M., of the Math Dept.

The winning delegation consisted of Fred Stillman, Kurt Pordes, Patricia Fiorelli, and Pamela Brooks. Mr. Edward F. O'Neill, a member of the faculty of St. Bernard's, was the advisor to the delegation.
