SALVE REGINA COLLEGE SODALITY COOPERATES WITH NEWPORT COMMUNITY CENTER

For the past week, members of the Salve Regina College Sodality have been collecting books and miscellaneous items for donation to the Newport Community Center. These will be delivered to the Center this afternoon, Wednesday, November 10.

Miss Susan Schiffer, 81 Scotland Avenue, Madison, Connecticut, was chairman of the project; and Miss Susan Ellis, East Wharf Road, Madison, Conn., was co-chairman.

Other members of the committee were the Misses Laura Jean Donovan, 27 Brookwood Drive, Wayne, N. J.; Helen Dorflinger, 25 Grove Road, Meriden, Conn.; Linda Pizzi, 396 Laurel Hill Avenue, Cranston, R. I.; Barbara Jean Reynolds, 64 Grace Street, New Haven, Conn.; and Frances Riley, 40 Locust Street, Marblehead, Mass.

In addition to this Sodality project for books, many other Salve Regina students do volunteer work at the Community Center every day, assisting in such activities as arts and crafts, cooking, sewing, and the like.

These activities indicate the close, personal interest Salve Regina students from out of town and out of state take in the needs of the community which becomes their own nine months a year for four years.
