FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUBS HOLD CHRISTMAS CEREMONIES AT SALVE

Today (Wednesday, December 15) the foreign language clubs will hold traditional Christmas ceremonies in Ochre Court at Salve Regina College.

The French Club will have its Buche de Noel party, equivalent to the American yule log. This will be held from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m.

At 7:00 o'clock El Circulo Espanol, the College's Spanish Club, will recreate in a simple but moving manner
"La Posada al nino Jesus," the birth of Christ. Representing the journey of Mary and Joseph, groups of girls will travel from door to door in Ochre Court singing in voices of praise, only to be rejected. Weary from travel the groups will join together and make their journey to the chapel and there ask admittance. Admittance gained, all the voices will sing in glory and praise, and in jubilation they will offer Him their gifts of love and self.

After leaving the chapel, the girls and their guests will enjoy a repast in the State Dining Room. The ceremony will conclude with the singing of "villancicos," Christmas carols.
