FOUR SALVE REGINA COLLEGE STUDENTS COMMISSIONED IN U.S. NAVY NURSE CORPS

Four seniors in the Nursing Division of Salve Regina College in Newport, R.I., were recently commissioned as Ensigns in the U.S. Navy Nurse Corps.

Commissioned at the Boston Naval Recruiting Station were: Patricia Moher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Moher, 139 Linden Avenue, Branford, Connecticut; Natalie Pozzi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pozzi, 183 Prospect Street, Phillipsburg, N.J.; and Janet Interante, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Interante, Sr., 204 West Main Street, Milford, Connecticut.

Commissioned at the Worcester Naval Recruiting Station was Ann Hurley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hurley, 39 Thorndyke Road, Worcester, Massachusetts.

After graduation in June from Salve Regina, these young women will report for a 4 1/2 week officer indoctrination course at the Newport Naval Base. Following this, they will be assigned to their first stations, beginning an initial period of service of two to three years.
