SALVE REGINA PROFESSOR TO PARTICIPATE IN EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION PROJECT

On Monday morning, January

17, 1966, in the Sheraton-Boston Hotel, the Northeastern Regional Instructional Television Project will hold a special meeting of some thirty educators who are concerned with teacher education in Language Arts in the elementary schools and English in the secondary schools.

Dr. E. William Burrell, director of secondary education and a member of the English department at Salve Regina College, will be a participant in this meeting.

Various series on Linguistics and allied topics which are now being developed for use via television for teachers and students will be discussed. A kinescope presentation of one of the programs in the series now being broadcast throughout the Eastern Educational Network, ENGLISH: FACT AND FANCY, will be shown by Mr. James Bostain, television teacher in the series.

The meeting will discuss the "New English" which seems in the educational world to have become the successor to the "New Math."
