NURSING EDUCATION CONFERENCE
SALVE REGINA COLLEGE, MARCH 5

The Division of Nursing of Salve Regina

College, in conjunction with the Rhode Island State Nurses' Association, will sponsor an all-day conference on Saturday, March 5, at Ochre Court, the College's administration building, in Newport.

The subject of the conference will be the American Nurses' Association Position Paper on Nursing Education.

Miss Ruth E. Bagley, R. N., chairman of the Department of Nursing, St. Anselm's College, Manchester, New Hampshire, and a member of the ANA's Board of Directors, will be the principal speaker. The conference is under the direction of Sister Mary Augustine, R. S. M., director of the Salve Regina College Division of Nursing.

Members of the Educational Administrators, Consultants, and Teachers Section of the Rhode Island State Nurses' Association, together with high school principals, guidance counselors, and interested faculty members of the secondary schools of the State have been invited to attend the conference.
